Unnecessary Taxation.

Nothing can be more incontrovertible than the declaration of the Democratic | national platform, that "unnecessary ernment has the moral or the legal right to tax a people beyond the needs of its treasury. The Tax laws of the United States are now producing $100,000,000 in excess of the expenditures of the Government, even upon the lavish scale ordained by Congress. This is unjust through trains out of Kansas City for taxation. Is a needless, and, therefore, an oppressive burden upon the people. Such being the case it will be the duty, as it should be the purpose, of Congress at this session, to prevent the surplus by reducing taxation.
